Dedication

We, the Junior and Senior Classes, do respectfully dedicate the 1962 "Arrow" to the members of the Lions Club of Cape Charles for their interest in the conservation of sight, for their civic mindedness, and for their efforts in finding musical talents to participate in The James Bland Memorial Scholarships. We are indeed grateful to them for the donation of lights to the athletic field. We thank them.

May God bless the Lions Club for their untiring endeavors in rendering assistance to the students of our school and bringing happiness and joy to all.

Our Principal

Congratulations to the annual staff for a job well done. The fruits of your efforts will be enjoyed now and in the years to come. Much happiness will be brought to many as a result of your planning this book.

As you seniors take your leave of Cape Charles High School, may you look back on your days here as some of the happiest and the most profitable of your lives. You may feel assured that we will follow with pleasure your achievements as you take your places in your community.

We wish much success and happiness to those of you who will return to this school for further training.

IS IT RIGHT?

By Willa C. Smith

At the crossroads you must choose;
Only one road you can take;
You your way may find or lose,
But you must decision make.
One road leads to wealth and fame
Places you on glory's height,
But before you choose the same,
Think, be careful! It is right?

Then another path you see
Looks so smooth, and 'long its way
Pretty flowers seem to be
Ever blooming night and day.
You behold a life of ease;
Ah, no battles here to fight;
But this question, if you please,
Must be answered: Is it right?

If you see a well-marked road
With your path to duty plain,
Where men totter 'neath the load
From too heavy stress and strain,
Where you need to lend a hand
That their burdens may be light,
Wait not for some high command,
Take this pathway. It is right.

Last Will and Testament

We, the 1962 Senior Class of Cape Charles High School, Cape Charles, Virginia, feeling fully equipped, leave our school behind to take our first step out in life. We wish to leave to the unfortunate ones who must stay behind this account of our Last Will and Testament to be executed in this manner:

ARTICLE 1. To the faculty we leave our gratitude for your guidance, patience, and untiring efforts in helping us to accomplish the past five years.

ARTICLE 1. SECTION 11.

To Mr. Burruss we leave one period a day which he can have all to himself.

To Mr. Weaver we leave many admiring little girls.

To Mr. Colona we leave one sour note.

ARTICLE 11. To our Alma Mater we leave the hope that it will give to all the other classes as many wonderful memories as it has given the Senior Class of '62.

ARTICLE 111. To the classes:

To the juniors we leave the glorious thought of having only one more year.

To the sophomores we leave the anticipation of their class rings when they become juniors.

To the freshmen we leave tomorrow, tomorrow, and tomorrow, three years full of sound and fury signifying nothing.

To the eighth-graders we leave 4 years, 8 semesters, 32 exams, 24 report cards to be signed, 720 days, and 4320 classes to attend.

ARTICLE IV. To the individuals:

John McMillan leaves his college board exams to David Dix.

Mary Bradford leaves all her parallel points to Johnny Bradford.

Jimmy Lewis leaves his car to Jimmy Bennett.

Sandra Tyndall leaves her sore throat to anybody who needs a rest from school.

Forrest Stiles leaves his cue stuck to Johnny Williams.

Sue Stevenson leaves her ability to stop eating between meals to Donna Edgerton.

Joe Groppenbacher leaves the Twist to anyone who can do it.

Betty Bradford leaves her ability to get a diamond ring to Sandra Disharoon.

Michael McCabe leaves his nose to anyone who wants it.

Suzanne Holloman leaves her ability to trip anybody on the basketball court to Barbara Heath.

Pete Smith leaves his parking place to Eric Hamilton.

Linda Wilkins leaves her bottle of shampoo to Mr. Colona.

Keith Bull leaves all his bad luck with cars to anyone who wants it.

Joy Savage leaves her cheerleading sweater to Ann Wilkins.

Excerpts From a Diary by Mr. School

- September 5 Today I welcomed a new class of Seniors. They are the students walking around with stars in their eyes - heads held high. They are the ones who, even though they look completely at ease, are feeling a little lost as they realize they are the oldest students. No longer do they have a class to look up to; now they are the class looked up to.
- October 28 Today was Senior Trip Day: a trip given by Mr. Burrus to the Seniors. This only heightens the sense that they have at last reached that grand and glorious year.
- November 14 Today after the Seniors returned from attending College Day, I did a little eavesdropping. I listened to the Seniors discussing their plans for the future. They seemed very excited about entering new schools and exciting jobs, but they also sounded just a little fearful. I have no fears for them; the young are very brave.
- December 5 C.C.H.S. '62 is what the Seniors are wearing, as their class pins arrived today. Hurray!
- January 24 Exams are finally over and things are beginning to calm down, on the outside, that is. The Seniors realize that half of the year is gone and they haven't much longer before they don caps and gowns and make their march down the aisle. Don't let their air of nonchalance fool you. Deep down inside they are quite jittery about the thought of leaving the halls that have given them so many memories.
- February 26 Today was Senior Day. With his personal "slave" each Senior marched around giving orders and having the underclassmen obey.
- March 11 The Seniors had the exciting thrill of being measured for caps and gown. Now they know that the big day is really near!
- April The Seniors are really preparing for Graduation. They have ordered caps, gowns, and invitations. Now they just count the days until they actually live the day they have worked toward for twelve years.
- May 11 Tonight is Prom Night. The Seniors are a little more excited than the rest of the students. The theme and decorations are a mystery which the Seniors will solve tonight when they, dressed in bows and lace, enter the gym for their last dance as a student at C.C.H.S.
- June 4 Last night was graduation. Once more I bid good-bye to a class that I have seen through twelve years of learning, fun and laughter. Each year I hate to see my Seniors leave. I know that even though they go with hearts full of joy and hope, they also hate to part. Though I say good-bye to them with sadness, I say it with pride and the knowledge that they are a class deserving of the praise WELL DONE!

MAID OF HONOR AT AZALEA FESTIVAL

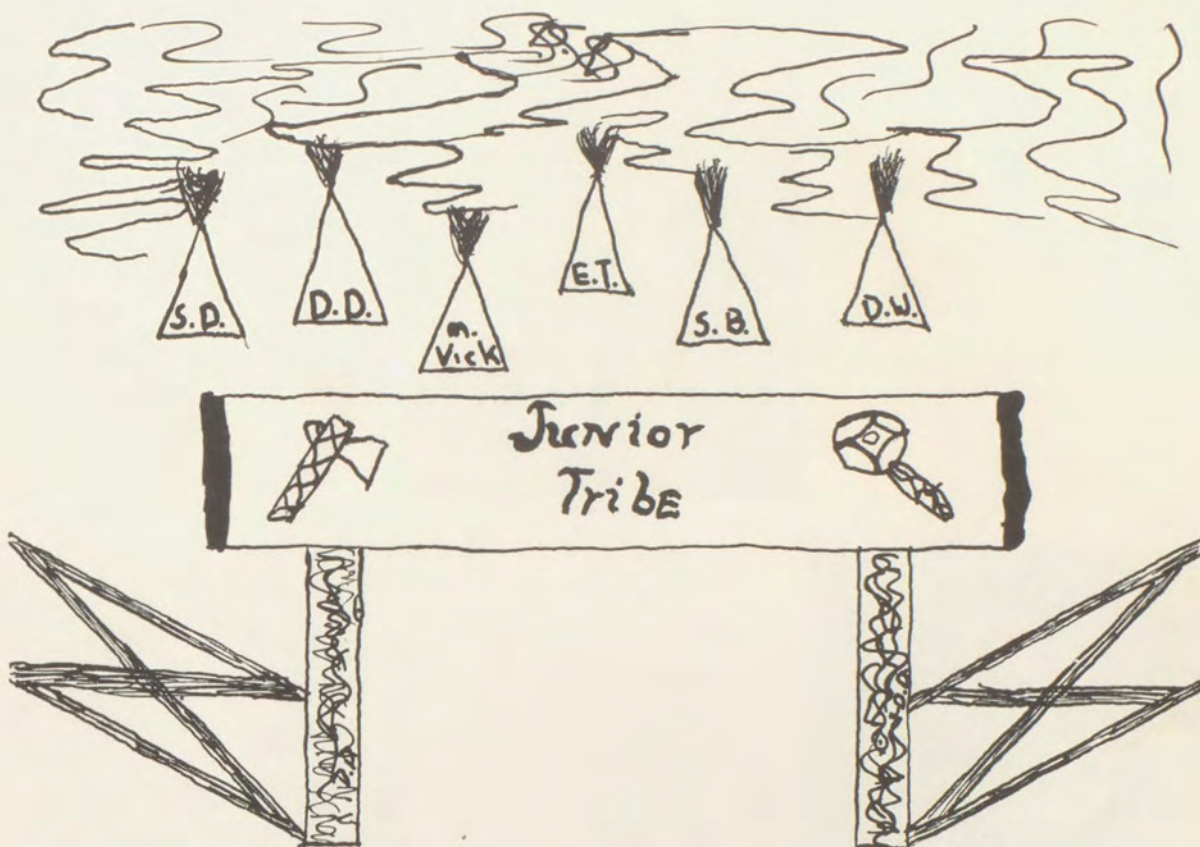

SUE STEVENSON

For nine years the Norfolk Chamber of Commerce, with the city of Norfolk, has sponsored the International Azalea Festival. A queen is selected to reign. To accompany her are princesses from the N.A.T.O. nations, with maids of honor from the various high schools and colleges in the Tidewater Area.

WE PREDICT . . .

- Junnie - Homerun King, doubles Maris's homerun record!
- John - Discovers a cure for the common cold, lime flavored bubble gum!
- Mike - Head of the English Department at Harvard!
- Joy - Replaces Barrie Chase as Fred Astaire's dancing partner, then replaces him!
- Sandra - Designs a new car which forces the Ford Co. out of business!
- Suzanne - World famous interior decorator of Alcatraz - forgot the bars!
- Betty - Writer of the first cookbook to sell a million, burned her finger taking bread out of the toaster!
- Pete - Secretary of Agriculture, goes bankrupt because of a crop failure!
- Joe - Playing the piano at Carnegie Hall hits a wrong key!
- Linda - Private Secretary to the President of the U. S., convicted of treason!
- Mary - First woman to travel in space forgets where she is and goes out for a walk!
- Keith - Secretary of the Treasury MISPLACES $2 Billion dollars!
- Sue - President of New York Yankees - Hmm plays for the Dodgers!

First Grade

In the beginning we were to be considered small, but oh, how much smaller we have become! Now, eleven years later we are one fourth our original size. Please, Seniors of '63, where are you?

When Studying — Do You . . .

1. Have your television turned on, loud and clear?
2. Have potato chips, a coke, and a cigarette beside you?
3. Have the assignment, perhaps the ones you forgot to do last night?
4. Have a pen without ink, a broken pencil, and no notebook paper?
5. Have thoughts of that prom you want to attend May 11th, and how you're going to persuade a certain boy to ask you?
6. Have your feet propped up and the answer table open in front of you?
7. Have a central location to study in so you won't miss a thing that goes on?
8. Have a friend conveniently drop by or telephone just as you begin to study?
9. Have a picture of your "steady" as a bookmark in your parallel book so you can daydream of the future instead of getting bored with the past?
10. Have a good night's rest of three hours so you'll wake fresh and ready to rush through your homework before going to Chemistry?

Just Imagine

We are but the lowly FRESHMAN CLASS
All Fresh and green . . . alack, alas!
If we could make things "come to pass-"
JUST IMAGINE!

Imagine Nancy Allen getting mad,
Jeffrey Bull starting a new fad,
Johnny Williams not being bad.
JUST IMAGINE!

Imagine Sue changing schools and not being missed,
Barbara Dale "sweet sixteen" and never been kissed,
Miss Nye at a dance and doin' the twist.
JUST IMAGINE!

Imagine Carl Lewis in a "cozy nook,"
Phillip Travis not studying a book,
Dennard giving a girl a second look.
JUST IMAGINE!

Imagine Pat not having a crush,
Billy McMillan in a rush,
Libby not being able to blush.
JUST IMAGINE!

Imagine Robert Shrieves singing like "Bing,"
Allison not wearing Monty's ring,
Butch not turning to baseball in spring.
JUST IMAGINE!

Imagine Bill Pollok tall and thin,
Archie Wallace with whiskers on his chin,
Russell playing basketball, and not needin' a pin.
JUST IMAGINE!

And last, but not least, can you imagine
Thomas Lee not saying, "I 'magine!"
If all goes well, and we're still alive,
BEHOLD THE CLASS OF '65!

Imagine Sharon Curling acting silly,
Janet not having a joke that's a "dilly,"
Karen not wanting to be with Billy.
JUST IMAGINE!

Imagine Teresa with long, blond hair,
Robbie Dix getting somewhere,
Linda Hall giving Eric the air.
JUST IMAGINE!

General Aims of the Student Cooperative Association.

- To develop in our schools the kind of students who are worthy citizens of the home, the school, the community, the nation, and the world in which they live
- To encourage greater and better cooperation and sharing of responsibilities on the part of students, teachers, and parents
- To help provide a wholesome spiritual, mental, social, and physical school environment
- To promote a safety program in an effort to decrease the number of accidents in the home, in the school, and on the highway
- To assist in providing a program of recreation and social activities, which encourages a wide degree of participation
- To work with the school faculty in promoting better understanding, on the part of both students and parents, in improving the guidance program, particularly in the vocational and educational fields available
- To assist in working on community projects, such as providing food, clothing, and comfort to procure a fuller measure of happiness for the less fortunate members of our society
- To promote good sportsmanship in every phase of school and community activity.

TOMMY MULVEY

Track 1961

In 1961, though the track team was small, Cape Charles High School produced a state champion for the fourth year in succession. Tommy Mulvey, a freshman, went to Charlottesville and won the high jumping event.

In his first track meet at Northampton in March, he jumped 5'3". He wasn't in another meet until the district meet at Atlantic. He jumped 5'4" and tied for first place. He earned the right to compete in the state meet, held May 12, 1961, at the University of Virginia. By jumping 5'6", he defeated all other contestants and was crowned state champion in the high jumping event.

Girls' Varsity Basketball

Senior Farewell

We, the Senior Class of 1962, wish to take this opportunity to say good-bye to our schoolmates. We have spent five years filled with work, happiness, and disappointments with our friends and teachers at C.C.H.S. Thanks to the teachers for their guidance and understanding in the past years. To our schoolmates whom we must leave behind we wish to say that these years will bring to you some of the most wonderful experiences of your life. You will someday don your cap and gown and know the grand and glorious feeling that comes from being seniors. Until then, get everything you can out of school. There is much to receive - not only the knowledge you get from your books, but also the memories of exciting ballgames and glamorous dances. These you will take with you for the rest of your life.

With these thoughts we say FAREWELL, and wish to you all the best of luck.

The Senior Class of '62
